

FLI Charter School is an exceptional educational opportunity for students located in Harlem, New York. A K-8 school created in 2005, FLI believes that strong teaching in a caring environment, combined with an intensive and extensive school day, empowers today's children to be the leaders of tomorrow.

FLI is looking for dedicated and enthusiastic teachers for the following positions:

- K, 2, 3 General Education
- Elementary & Middle School Science
- Educational Teaching Assistants

Significant successful teaching experience in grades K-8.

A solid understanding of effective elementary and middle school education, pedagogy and student development.

Experience with urban student populations.

All applicants must be New York State Certified in the field for which they apply or, if certified out-of-state, must be eligible for reciprocity.